

Expedition Field Instructor
Expedition Therapy Associates, LLC
Southern Utah

Be a part of the exciting, challenging outdoor adventure experience that is Expedition Therapy! Join a team of professionals who are making a difference in young people's lives. Our variety of challenging expeditions (including, rock climbing, canyoneering, backpacking, kayaking, cultural exploration and more) provides Expedition Therapy students with opportunities to learn, teach, and lead in the rugged backcountry of southern Utah.

Expedition Field Instructor Requirements:

- Demonstrated understanding and application of professionalism.
- Passion and interest in working with young adults age 18-26 years old.
- Empowerment-based, wilderness therapy experience and strong rapport building skills preferred.
- Age 25+; Bachelors Degree required
- Background in sociology, psychology and personal growth extremely desirable.
- Wilderness First Responder certification required; WEMT strongly preferred.
- Two years professional outdoor leadership experience, or 1 yr. experience + certification in the respective discipline. (climbing, canyoneering, and/or kayaking).
- 100+ Field days of instruction preferred
- Recognized trainings & certifications in areas of activity preferred
- Driving Record: Satisfactory completion of background and driving checks. 2 Years with a clean driving record.
- Life Guard certification is a plus.
- Demonstrated ability in sound judgment and decision making, leadership ability, LNT mastery and skills competency.

Expedition Field Instructor Responsibilities Include:

- Expedition Instructor will plan, coordinate and lead Expedition Therapy Young Adult (age 18-26) Group Expeditions.
- Expeditions may include: rock climbing, canyoneering, cultural exploration, kayaking, backpacking, fly fishing, plus transportation.
- Rock Guide: Must be able to set-up and manage a Top Rope site, Place artificial protection and climb up to 5.8. Certifications with the PCIA or AMGA are preferred.
- River Guide: Must be able to lead river trips with groups of up to 10 kayaking (class I-III) & (flat water – Class IV). Certification with the ACA or BCA preferred.
- Backpacking Guide: Must be knowledgeable with the LNT environmental ethic. Prior outdoor leadership experience and ability to teach backcountry skills. Certifications and trainings with WEA, NOLS, &/or LNT preferred.
- Driving Abilities: Expedition Instructors are designated drivers for out-of-base-camp excursions, transporting students on multi-day expeditions.

Currently accepting applications. Pay is commensurate with experience. Opportunities for growth within successful company. Bonuses, pro deals, alternate weekly shifts. For more information on Expedition Therapy, visit us at expeditiontherapy.com

To apply, email your cover letter and resume to expeditioncareers at gmail.com

=====